Hands on Pressure Canning and Salsa, Water Bath Canning Course

Home food preservation is making a comeback! If you are not confident about what to do with your garden’s bounty it may be time to think about participating in the Pressure Canning and/or Water Bath Canning class.

Sign up now and learn up-to-date food preservation procedures that are essential to ensure safe canning of your fruits and vegetables.

Leon County Extension--University of Florida/IFAS is offering a Hands-on Pressure Canning course on the following date: (Class is limited to Seven Participants.)

August 13, 2012  8:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Leon County Extension--University of Florida/IFAS is offering a Hands-on Salsa Water Bath Canning course on the following date: (Class is limited to Twelve Participants.)

October 25, 2012  8:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Pre-registration is required:
$5 fee per person – Class size limited to seven participants.

You may register by calling the Extension Office at 850-606-5203 or by mailing your $5 check payable to Leon County Extension Fund with the registration form (check which date you want to attend).

Class sizes are limited.

All courses will be held at the Leon County Extension Office located at 615 Paul Russell Road, Tallahassee, Florida 32301

Pressure Canning & Salsa Water Bath Canning Class
Pressure Canning  ____ August 13, 2012  8:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.
Salsa, Water Bath Canning  ____ October 25, 2012  8:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

To Reserve your spot, please mail check: to Leon County Extension, 615 Paul Russell Rd, Tallahassee, FL 32301

Name __________________________________________________________
Address _______________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________
Telephone Number _______________________________________________
Email __________________________________________________________